Identification of trafficking victims and subsequent investigative measures

 LAST CALL FOR REGISTRATIONS! *****

You are warmly invited to attend a UK European Migration Network (EMN) Conference on Thursday, 6th June 2013, 10:00 to 17:00

British Library, 96 Euston Road, London, NW1 2DB

This conference aims to explore the latest evidence and policy perspectives on the identification and investigation of human trafficking offences. This one day event will bring together key policy makers, academic researchers and non governmental organisations from the fields of asylum and migration to share and exchange their knowledge and experiences.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Pam Bowen (Strategy and Policy Directorate, Crown Prosecution Service)
- Peter Carter, QC (Barrister-at-Law)
- Ilias Chatzis (Chief of the Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling Section of UNODC)
- Justine Currell (Head of Human Trafficking, Home Office)
- Professor Ryszard Piotrowicz (Aberystwyth University and UK Representative to the Council of Europe's Group of Experts on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings)
- Liam Vernon (Deputy Head of UK Human Trafficking Centre - Serious Organised Crime Agency)
- Representatives and researchers from Salvation Army, IOM Italy, IOM Germany, Federal Office for Migration and Refugees Germany and other organisations.

The conference will explore the following themes:

- research evidence on profiles of trafficking victims and traffickers
- identification and scale of victims of trafficking
- good practice in investigating trafficking offences
- different approaches to investigating trafficking offences
- improving conviction rates of traffickers

Places are strictly limited.
